

iRex Technologies brings you the best of both worlds.

Paper-like reading with the advantages of electronic paper via the Internet.

iRex Technologies BV, a spin-off from Royal Philips Electronics with backing secured from major independent equity investors, redefines electronic paper applications by providing a total solution for portable, electronic reading and writing.