MS. Elf!

There, she rested.
A golden crown
upon her head, and
her body adorned in
a beautiful grass-
colored dress. Her appearance was
befitting of a queen.

Before me was a rich forest. There were animals scattered all around, and I watched a deer shake its head after taking a drink from a stream. Mountains lined the horizon, and a
rainbow hung over a waterfall in the distance.
After the deer finished taking its drink, it stood staring at that sight.
